Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22, 1879. EDITOR CHRONICLE: This is a National Holiday, declared so by act of Congress. We now have, by custom, six National Holidays, Christmas, New Years, Washington's birth-day, Decoration day, 4th BILIOUS, REMITTENT and all MALA. of July and Thanksgiving day. Bilious, Sick and Nervous Headache, and The Government Departments are all diseases arising from torpid liver. The all closed to-day, and the streets are strength to the weak and debilitated. filled with people walking about taking their ease. Parades are in ties Falling of the Womb, Leucorthea order and bands of music are at play. Cannons are lumbering off at intervals. Altogether Washington seems the day which gave the world the immortal George. I walked around large number of Tennessee friends. The list runs: Hon. Horace Maynard, A. J. Ricks, Col. J. M. Thornburgh, L. C. Houk, Captain Jaques, Major E. C. Camp, J. C. Flanders, Morgan Llewellyn, Lewis Lenoir, James Welcker and Ed. Hayes. Mr. Maynard and wife are on their return to Knoxville. It is understood that the health of Mrs. Maynard demands that she spend some time in the climate of her old home, and that she will remain at Knoxville. Mr. Maynard seems in a jolly, good Yearly advertis ments payable quarterly. All mood, and evidently feels happy to find himself again on the soil of his $1 50 native land, and surrounded by the friends of his former days. He contemplates returning to Constantinople about the first of April. They start for Knoxville, as I un> derstand, on Monday morning. Captain Ricks arrived last night looking for a good trade this spring. 12 47 pm from Ohio, and is, as usual, in excellent spirits. baffled the destroyer and bas returned to the Capitol looking in turned to the Capitol looking in finer health than ever. A prominent official here said to me lately, this train No 3 connects at Dalton with the Western and turned to the Capitol looking in and at Chattagooga with Alabama and Great finer health than ever. A promi-"I am glad that Thornburgh looks 7 00 pm so well again. He has the most Prime to choice 50a55 Bright 11 in 35a45 & E 11 25 pm nerve for a little man I ever saw." Fancy 50 Caddy, 6 in 55a55 The Col. goes out of Congress with is recognized by the officials here and the hero of the "battering ram" Make connections with both day trains on the gauntlet is appreciated and honored at the National Capitol. It is understood that Hon. Xen. Wheeler, will succeed Judge Andrews. His appointment is recommended by Col. Thornburgh. Postmaster General Key is warmly for him, there is little doubt adon to connect with the eastern bound train, of his appointment. I am not aware that any other applications are in for the place. Judge Key is be-He refuses of late to appoint Democrats to office, as I am told. He lately rebuked the bulldozers at Spring Garden, Ala., by discontinuing their postoffice, because they had treated a government agent with contempt. The agent went there to investigate some irregularities of the Postmaster, and the citizens arrested him on a technicality, and he now awaits his trial under bond. Mr. Key brings them to HON, ALEX. H. STEPHENS, the great their senses by intimating to them that when they learn to treat will restore their postoffice. In politics, cipher dispatches are trumps, and the Republican party > has made a pile of money in stocks this year, and is expected to get the nomination again. The Greenback party leaders met here to-day in caucus, a49c. and declared war on resumptions for Buildings of every description tion. They are the coming party, they say. The Republicans from Maine to California (that party owns no territory south of parallel 38) are sick of conciliation. The President says "'nouga." The Grant fever is "booming."

Senator Logan was the object of the wildest popular demonstration here this week that has been witnessed in years. But mo.e was said of Grant on the occasion than of Logan. The silent man is already nominated by acclamation.

nore than a quarter of a century, and have obtained a world-wide reputation for their virtues. They correct diseased action in the several assimilative organs of the body, and are so composed that obstructions within their range can rarely with-stand or evade them. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every-body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, the safest and best physic for children. By their aperient action they gripe much less than the common purgatives, and never give pain when the bowels are not inflamed. They reach the vital fountains of the blood, and strengthen the system by freeing from the elements of weakness.

Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, these Pills may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take; while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity. PREPARED BY
